Dr. Garth Fisher

A leading and renowned plastic surgeon, Dr. Garth Fisher practices more than medicine. Hailing from Mississippi and ingrained with a strong, southern sensibility, Dr. Fisher is also a practitioner of positive change and goodwill. His extensive work with such charities as The Poly Klaas Foundation, HollyRod Foundation, Children's Hospital Los Angeles, The Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation, The United Cancer Front and others, testify to his continued and dedicated philanthropic efforts.

Aside from working with such charitable causes, Dr. Fisher is helping pioneer a new, more comprehensive and patient sensitive approach to plastic surgery. In his commitment to educate the consumer about all the procedures, risks and rewards of plastic surgery, Dr. Fisher has created and produced the award-winning 5-part series of informational videos entitled, "The Naked Truth About Plastic Surgery: A Home Consultation with a Prominent Beverly Hills Plastic Surgeon." He is also responsible for creating and producing "The Informed Patient Series," a widely acclaimed set of informative videos used by other plastic surgeons to objectively inform their patients of the inherent risks and potential benefits of plastic surgery. Additionally, Dr. Fisher travels and lectures internationally, sharing modern concepts and techniques with other plastic surgeons from around the world and advancing awareness of patient rights and other essential patient issues.

Known by many as the doctor from ABC's hit show "Extreme Makeover," Dr. Garth Fisher is a visionary and activist dedicated to making a difference. Whether working to implement traditional, ethical and wholesome values in his field or contributing time and resources to aid various charitable causes, Dr. Fisher exemplifies the qualities and character of a Model Citizen.
