

NYLON

ZOOEY DESCHANEL

THE NEW FACE OF OLD HOLLYWOOD

COSTUME DRAMA: ARMANI GOES TO THE MOVIES

EMPIRE OF UNDERDOGS:
THE DISTILLERS
KEEP PUNK ON A SHORT LEASE

325

OF THE BRIGHTEST BEAUTY LOOKS UNDER THE SUN

CALIFORNIA
DREAMY: THE L.A.
ISSUE

SECRET IDENTITY:
JACK BLACK
WILL NEVER TELL

**+
scott speedman
surf culture so-cal style & sounds

Dr. Garth Fisher: Dr. Fisher is extremely secretive about his celebrity clientele. We've heard from a reliable source, however, that many of the daywatch bosoms were sculpted by his expert hands.

Dr. Stanley Trileck: With 25 years of plastic surgery birth deformities and patients includes Simon West.

Dr. Lee Bolton: Dr. Bolton has been in the business for 17 years, but he doesn't nip and tuck, which of liposuction: "Once you have the lips."

to his credit, Dr. Frileck can pretty much do anything. In addition to helping patients with headline injuries, he's best known for his holistic approach to skin treatment. One of the most gratifying experiences? "A 92-year-old woman who wanted facial restoration—in the end, she looked 60."

BODY WORK

IT'S NO SECRET THAT THE CELEBRITIES WE SCRUTINIZE FROM AFAR HAVE HAD A HELPING HAND IN LOOKING HOT. THESE ARE THE GOOD L.A. DOCTORS WHO NIP AND TUCK IN THE NAME OF GLITZ AND GLAMOUR. BY CRYSTAL MEERS. PHOTOGRAPHED BY MARY ROZZI

Dr. Kevin Sands: Beverly Hills native and dentist extraordinaire, Dr. Sands boasts a client roster that includes Robert Downey Jr., and Tori Spelling. Although his specialty is porcelain veneers, he also promises he can "correct crooked teeth, lengthen short teeth, and close gaps."

The price? 1,500 bucks per tooth.

means total privacy for his patients—celebrity or otherwise. A bit of doctoring wisdom on the magic of the oven? "The fat doesn't come back unless you put more wood in the oven than the oven can burn."